Best Paper Award 2024 Kenyon

This year we gave participants the option to rank their top 5 papers from those that were presented. Using ranked choice voting, conference participants awarded the best paper to:

Ethan Struby (Carleton College) for his paper ""Inflation Expectations and Political Polarization: Evidence from the Cooperative Election Study"

With honorable mentions going to:

Erin Cottle Hunt (Reed) for "Retirement Choice and Bequest Risk."

Chad Curtis (Richmond) for "Does the Phillips Curve Lie Down As We Age?"
